

The U.S. Census Bureau is ramping up for the 2020 Census and is recruiting for temporary jobs. By visiting <https://2020census.gov/jobs>, applicants can apply for a range of positions, including office operations supervisors, clerks, Listers and census field supervisors. The positions will be located in and around your local area, and have flexible work hours, including daytime, evenings and weekends.

Available jobs:

- Office Operations Supervisors: assist in the management of office functions and day-to-day activities in one or more functional areas, including payroll, personnel, recruiting, field operations and support.
- Clerks: perform various administrative and clerical tasks to support various functional areas, including payroll, personnel, recruiting, field operations and support.
- Census Field Supervisors: conduct fieldwork to support and conduct on-the-job training for census takers and/or to follow-up in situations where census takers have confronted issues, such as not gaining entry to restricted areas. This position is a Work at Home position.
- Enumerator/Listener: work in the field. Some field positions require employees to work during the day to see addresses on buildings. Other field positions require interviewing the public, so employees must be available to work when people are usually at home, such as in the evening and on weekends. This position is a Work at Home position.
